

To revoke Wisconsin's "No Call List" would intrude upon my privacy of my personal residence. I am the one paying for my telephone service not businesses that solicit. If you want to make them pay for my personal telephone line, then I wouldn't have a problem with them calling me whenever they please.